Mishaps Kill One Injure 3

Edmonton district traffic accidents overnight took one life and sent three persons to hospital, one in bad condition.

The fatality occurred 60 miles north of Edmonton last night where Jack Desmuel, 22, of Alberta, died from injuries received when his one-ton truck overturned into a ditch one mile east of Bloomersburg. The 50-year-old father of three was rushed to Barriere Hospital where he died.

SECOND MISHAP

In bad condition in General Hospital is Robert Forbes, 62, of 10210 street, following a truck-car collision three miles west of Stang Plain, about 8 p.m. Rushed to hospital by Smith's Ambulance, he was found to have possible concussion and a broken jaw and collarbone.

Alex Kolonowsky, Wildwood, driver of the halfton truck which collided with Forbes' car, is reported in good condition in General Hospital. He has possible chest injuries.

Edwiny W. S. Baker, 10203-100 avenue, rushed shortly from injuries received when he was knocked down by a car at 107 street and Jasper this morning. He lay on the pavement for 15 minutes with blood streaming from laceration at the back of his head before taken to Royal Alexandra Hospital by city ambulance.

Baker also has an injured shoulder and leg.

He was crossing Jasper about 8 a.m. when struck by the eastbound car, a late-model sedan.

HIT BROADSIDE

In the fourth overnight accident, an Edmonton couple were killed when the four-wheel drive car was hit broadside by a second auto at 114 avenue and 89 street, at 5:30 p.m. Mrs. and Miss Clifford Stuhlmeyer, 12640-10 avenue, escaped serious injury but the left side of the front of the other car, driven by Roy Edward Forrest, 3121-39 street, was also damaged.

Mom and Pop At the Races

MON'S STAKE: 302.25 AT EDMONTON

It's again my slow, but sure method is now proving itself over Pop's underhanded planning technique. Beat Orage provided the soundness of place bets by running second for me yesterday. But since today's the last of the season and I'm a little ahead of the game I'll have one more change by betting the gutball off Prince Calvert and Ron Alberti. It's hard times for Pop unless he puts up his socks today.

POP'S STAKE: $55.85 AT EDMONTON

Listen to that Mom will you? The way she talks you would think she had been ahead of me all season. Or well, that's a woman for you—she never loses and never wins. I'm not worried—I have more fun on my own and I'm still in. And for my last "plugging" bet, as conservative Mom put it, I'll bet a dozen that Fort Gerry had the stuff to get there "hustled with the most" "money" being the winning which will put me ahead of the better half.

By EARNEST HOBERECHT
Exclusive to The Bulletin
TOKYO, August 26. — (UPI) — Allied forces encircled 2,000 to 3,000 enemy troops in the last Nakdong river bridgehead today and prepared to starve them out. At the same time allied troops gained up to a mile in counterattacks along the 70-mile embattled northern front.

Rail Strike Negotiation Continues

Another Session Called Tonight; No Statements Yet

OTTAWA, Aug. 26. — (CP) — Rail strike negotiations adjourned their discussions at 4:25 p.m. EDT today to resume at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

As they adjourned their second meeting of the day neither the union heads nor the railway men would give any indication of what progress, if any, had been made at the latest conference.

Frank Hall, head of 35 International unions engaged in the strike, had no comment on the result of the latest session.

"I can't tell you a thing," Hall said to newspapermen waiting outside the Commons railway committee room, where the negotiations are being held.

Neither Mr. Gordon nor Mr. Hall would say, when asked specifically, if any progress had been made this morning.

"That is difficult to say," Mr. Gordon commented.

This morning's talks were interrupted at 11:45 a.m. to permit the management heads to hold a private conference in a nearby committee room.

They returned to the railway committee room and resumed joint talks at 12:30 p.m. and adjourned for lunch about 1:15 minutes later.

The cabinet meeting, was summoned to meet at 2:30 p.m.

East Coast brokers said the timing of the cabinet meeting in relation to the 7 p.m. meeting of the negotiators—was purely coincidental.

When the railways left the main conference room for a private discussion, it was assumed the talks had reached a point at which management required privacy to reach decision on some proposed concessions.

The cabinet meeting of the company nor of the union commented on the expected progress of the talks.

GOV'T REPORTS LATEST WORK CUPID, STORK

OTTAWA, Aug. 26. — (CP) — The old man with the sickle so far has put in a big year's work. Cupid, also, has been busy. But the stork has fallen down a little on the job.

The Bureau of Statistics yesterday reported deaths in the first half of the year to total 62,346, up 1,088 over the comparable 1949 total of 61,260.

Births were 172,061, more than 700 below the total of 172,966 for the corresponding 1949 period. Marriages totaled 45,455 against 45,390.

Daily Double Pays $64.55 At Edmonton

A cool $64.55 was the payoff in the daily double at Edmonton's racing meet at the Exhibition oval today as the first two races of the meet's final day came to a close.

In the first, Culp held on to come down in front and pay $12.10 to win, $4.35 to place and $3.35 to show.

Apprentice Norm Hartley, who broke his maiden yesterday, rode the winner.

Tiercel won place money with North View winning show.

In the second race Sugar Dough came down in front to pay $9.65, $4.45 and $3.30.

Emil Roy rode the winner and the double was worth $64.55.

In second place was Hilda while show money went to Chukking.

Judge Schilling Dismounts 9 Jocks

Ruling Follows Suspension After Monday's Fourth Race

A bombshell was exploded in horse racing circles today when nine top-riding jockeys were removed from their mounts at Edmonton Exhibition track by presiding steward Judge George W. Schilling.

Judge Schilling said the action was taken as a result of "My concern at the exhibition race track last Monday."

Calgary jockey Jimmy Schind was suspended earlier this week by Judge Schilling for allegedly accepting a bribe to hold back his mount "Plucky Devil," in the fourth race.

At that time Judge Schilling recommended barring Jack Superstella, an Edmonton businessman, from race tracks for allegedly bribing jockey Schind.

The jockeys ordered off their mounts today, some of whom rode in the fourth race of last Monday, are Ben Stewart, J. Carroll, Jim Sindquist, Eddie Johnson, Cliff Potts, Stan Connell, R. DeBelle, Elvin Arnold and J. Kelly.

"The jockeys are not suspended. I have removed them from their mounts on today's racing program," Judge Schilling explained.

Added the judge "I am continuing the investigation. When I have completed it, I will announce the results of my findings and take whatever action may be warranted."

ENDS TODAY

Edmonton's 14-day fall race meet, ends with today's card at the Exhibition track.

Case of Jimmy Schind and Superstella has been referred to the board of directors of the Prairie Thoroughbred Breeders and Racers Association "for further action as it deems fit."

Memphis Man Heads Open But 209 Score Looks Weak

By W. R. WHEATLEY
ROYAL MONTEAL GOLF CLUB, Aug. 26. — (CP) — Glen Teal of Memphis, Tenn., moved into the lead in the third round today of the Canadian Open at this stage it didn't appear as if his 209 for 54 holes would stand up.

Teal plus a 68, four under par, on his third round to go with his 141 for 36 holes.

Marty Fargal of New York Mills also posted a 69 today and had 219 at the three-quarter mark. At that time Bob Tuohy of Northampton, Mass., with a 70 today, was next with 211.

At 212 were Dave Douglas of Newark, Del., Tom Bell of Dartmouth, N.Y. and Ted Neal of Wakefield, Mass.

HOTTEST MAN

When Teal finished the hottest man on the course was Jim Ferrer of San Francisco, whose 214 for a 46-hole total.

hole total of 135 was only one stroke off the pace-setting 124 for Stan Leonard of Vancouver.

The United States Army today drew up its plans for running the country's railroads until the owners and two disrupting unions can agree on operating terms.

President Truman yesterday directed Army Secretary Frank Pace to take over the 331 major railroads in the United States at 5 p.m. EDT tomorrow. This led the trainmen and conductors to call off plans for a country-wide walkout. Monday of their 390,000 members.

So the President's seizure order restored peace for the time being and assured that the trains will keep running. The unions said their members would "gladly" work for the government.

The unions want the same pay for a 40-hour week as paid now for 48 hours—requiring a 31-cent hourly increase—plus workers in train service. For those in train service, the trainmen and conductors want wage adjustments that would wipe out the pay differentials allowed by firemen and engineers.

The railroads have agreed as high as 25 cents increase for yard service men, and a five-cent boost for train service men.

The White House press secretary, Charles C. Ross, said today that a settlement with the unions under negotiation, but it is up to the carriers and unions to settle their own argument.

Surrey Eleven Starts Well

LONDON, Aug. 26. — (Reuters) — Surrey made a good start to its vital county cricket championship clash against Lancashire at the Oval today. Lancashire, which needed only to take four points from a drawn game to make sure of the championship, dropped its England left-arm bowler, Bob Berry, in the first over, but he had a medium bowler, T. Dicksen.

No Railways, 24 Tons Fish Go By Truck

Emergency hauls by motor transport units are beginning to spread as the nation-wide rail tie-up goes into its fifth day.

Example is the transporting of 24 tons of Great Slave Lake Whitefish, which left Hay River in the 26-ton refrigerated semi-trailers late Wednesday for U.S. markets. Normally the fish would be moved by truck only as far as Peace River and loaded on rail way refrigerated cars for the long haul to eastern U.S.

BECAUSE HERE
As it is, the whitefish were reloaded at Truckers Terminal Ltd. here last night after having made the 800 mile journey by motor transport from end of the waterway.

Right now the big semi-trailers are rolling along somewhere between here and Winnipeg on the 915-mile round trip to the trip to market. The haul is believed to be first undertaking of its nature. The semi-trailers quit work when they transfer their load to U.S. trucks at the Winnipeg rendezvous.

Instead they will be washed out and journey to Minnesota to load up on trucks for fruit-shipping to Canada.

Parsons Blamed For Empty Pews

LOVELL, Aug. 26.—(Reuters)—Lumbering parsons are usually to blame for falling attendance at church services, the periodical, London Churchman, said yesterday in an article.

"The priest in 20 knows how to make himself easily understood. They all say how badly all the others read, but very few find that they have anything to learn."

Heart Attack Kills Insurance Official

PILLULAH, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Walter A. Craig, 58, vice-president of the insurance executive, died Thursday night of a heart attack at his suburban home. KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 26.—(Reuters)—A 24-hour strike of stevedores at Salt River, main harbor port for the island, ended today. The strike, which was called by the dockers against low wages and on strike against the bulk loading of sugar for Britain, ended the system reduced their earnings.

RAILWAY STRIKE BRIEFS

Rail Workers' Cheques Delayed; Clerks Striking

Railway employees on strike won't get their two-week back pay on time. Railway officials said in the majority of cases clerical employees preparing payrolls and paychecks have been called out on strike, causing delay in payment of wages.

No word has yet been received as to when the payroll will arrive in Edmonton.

City police and a strike committee of Canadian Congress of Labor Relations' locals here combined yesterday to investigate Edmonton's first report of trouble on the picket lines.

The police passed on to the strike leaders a complaint from Eric Hawks that pickets were discouraging customers from entering his Calder Coffee Shop, 1190-127 avenue after he had refused to supply "free coffee."

James Jamieson, chairman of the area strike committee, said investigation showed the "interference" was when the work of "a disgruntled individual." No bona fide pickets were involved, he claimed.

Switch lights in the Edmonton railway yards are gradually going out one by one.

Burns since the strike was called five days ago their supply of oil is being used up and they will be refilled till the men return to work.

The lamps use a high grade of kerosene and with a normal use usually burn for a week at a time without refilling.

Maybe it was wishful thinking or maybe it was just too much late celebration.

Whatever it was, the anonymous 1:30 a.m. phone call to the Bulletin office today said some one heard freight engines chugging around the South Side yards. Even claimed the whistles were blown.

But a railway official said the call must have been overly hopeful.

"But a whistle would be a sound good," he exclaimed.

An announcement from an strike headquarters of Canadian Congress of Labor locals in Edmonton indicated determination of striking rail workers to lay on

SIDEWALK CAFE is improvised near CNRA MacDonald hotel here as striking miners get ration of free coffee and doughnuts donated by strike headquarters. While most of Edmonton's 1,500 picketers are polite, these three—Ruth Matheson, Vera Rowat and Mary Burns—are pretty, too. ## APPLE SALE NEXT WEEK

Kiwans' 1950 apple campaign will be officially launched at the club luncheon Monday in the Trocadero. Price for box of apples this year is $4.25 with the numbers setting a 14,000-box objective.

Increased costs of operating the Kiwans home, for which the money is raised will require greater effort by members in the sale of the apples, officials pointed out.

Full Hearing Anticipated

LAKE SUCCES, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(UPI)—United Nations Security Council delegates expect a full hearing of the Formosan question next week.

Western representatives, however, are determined that consideration of Communist China's charges of American aggression on that Pacific Island, held now by the Chinese Nationalists, should not sidetrack the Korean issue.

Even if Formosa is not put on the agenda, Russia's Jack A. Malik made it clear yesterday that he will refer to the situation there in his speeches.

The security council meeting will discuss this question and determine the substance of the matter," he said, after the Chinese Nationalist delegate, T. T. Tzang, had declared:

"Because it is fed by four of the great lakes, Nixara has the steady flow of all the great waterfalls."

He Warns Police Of What He'll Do

An angry Edmonton householder told police Friday he would take "drastic measures" if he caught the person who delivered two communist newspapers to his doorstep.

Jack Wilson, 1012-38 street, said the papers were headlined "No Canadian Lives in the Yankee War" and displayed a picture of Tim Buck on the front page.

Alta. Cities Treated Unfairly—Mayor

Don't Get Rightful Share Of Federal Health Grants

Alberta cities are the only ones in Canada which do not receive their fair share of federal health grants.

Therefore Mayor Sid Parsons did not raise the question at the Saskatoon conference of mayors and municipalities, from which he returned by car last night.

"I didn't put our health grant resolution before the conference, because in all other provinces the cities are being treated fairly when the provincial government distributes federal health money," he said today.

"It's a purely provincial matter that we don't get our fair share here, and we'll have to take it up at the fall meeting of Alberta cities officials."

Alta. Coal Output Up

Alberta's coal fields upped their production during July as compared with the same month last year.

Last month 430,780 tons of coal were produced in bituminous and sub-bituminous fields, an increase of 3,857 tons compared to July, 1949.

The overall increase resulted from substantially higher production in the sub-bituminous fields, where output for last month was 105,250 tons, compared to 96,411 tons in the corresponding period.

MAJOR INCREASES
Major production increases were recorded at the Ardley, Champion, Strathcona, Carboon, Custer, Redcliff and Sheerness area mines.

Bituminous coal production dropped by 3,857 tons, with mines in the Nordberg and Crow's Nest fields showing the biggest decreases.

The six major mines in the Mountain Park area raised production from 61,401 tons in July, 1949, to 70,582 tons in July of this year.

Small increases were reported from Canada, Culparg, Lethbridge and Henders fields.

Output to July 31 this year amounted to 4,431,006 tons, compared to 4,440,773 tons for the January to July period of 1949.

GARDEN TOOL TRIMS OVERHANGING GRASS

Grass which grows out across the edges of sidewalks and flower beds is trimmed neatly and easily with a new no-stop garden tool.

Rolling its rubber-tired wheel along the lawn or sidewalk causes the circular cutting blade to rotate against two stationary blades, trimming the grass.

The edge cuts when rolled in either direction and can be held at any desired angle to trim the grass around buildings, stepping stones, fences and trees.

FURNITURE IS ALSO IN NEED OF FACIAL

Beauty treatments have long been a boon to glamer-wise women, but now, surprisingly, the same treatments are being recommended for furniture.

Ries Hurd Gardner of the USAC Extension Service, in a new bulletin titled "Beauty Treatment For Furniture," gives three steps to be followed in the beauty-for-furniture program, namely, she says, to keep finished pieces from aging and getting that run-down-at-the-heels look.

FIRST CLEANING

Mrs. Gardner insists that most "finishes" (exceptions being shellac and poor quality varnishes) may be improved by washing and polishing. It removes the dull appearance caused by smoke, steam, house dust and grease.

With a soft, clean cloth, wrung out of a hot solution of one quart hot water, three tablespoons boiled linseed oil and one tablespoon turpentine, wash the furniture until soil is removed, then wipe it dry.

Mrs. Gardner warns here against getting the moisture too near glued joints. Then comes a brisk polishing.

REMOVE SCRATCHES

For removing scratches, finish checking and white spots, Mrs. Gardner recommends the following treatment:

"Rub the surface fairly vigorously with a felt pad or heavy cloth."

Floor Base Is Formed By Subfloor

The subfloor in a house is laid diagonally over the joists to form a base for the finish floor and to help strengthen the floor framing. It also acts as a working surface during construction.

As the subfloor is laid before the roof is made watertight, the boards should not be laid too tightly together. This helps prevent buckling caused by expansion.

It is considered good practice to apply a layer of moisture resistant paper before the finish flooring is laid.

WELL SEASONED

Hardwood used for the finish flooring should be well seasoned and kiln dried. As excessive exposure to cold or dampness may warp the wood, it should be laid as soon as possible after delivery to the site.

Birch, maple and oak are the hardwoods most commonly used. Although No. 2 grade is generally acceptable, better grades are preferable where a uniform shade is desired.

The finish floor should not be laid until the plastering and other preliminary work on the house has been completed, thereby preventing unnecessary damage to the floor.

Where possible, the flooring should run parallel to the length of the room. It should be carried from room to room without change in direction of laying.

The joists should be well distributed—preferably a foot or more apart.

Apartment Tenants Dial Indoor 'Clima'

Vancouver Apartment House Solves Heating Problems

VANCOUVER, Aug. 19.—Tenants in the new O. Becker apartment here may satisfy their every whim for heating comfort simply by turning a dial.

By means of the most modern heating controls system of its kind, occupants of each of the building's 28 suites can select their own "climate"—a growing trend in modern apartment house construction. Pneumatic thermostats regulate the temperature in individual suites, in response to comfort demands of the occupants.

SUFFICIENT HEAT

The personalized heating control system, according to engineers, permits occupants of the northside of the apartment (invariably subjected to the coldest breezes and least sunshine) to receive sufficient heat for comfortable living without overheating the tenants in the other sections of the building. Engineers also point out that the system benefits the owner through fuel saving and increased tenant satisfaction.

The individual thermostat controls a pneumatic valve which adjusts the water supply to each suite and the floor.

ATOMIC RUBBLE is this residential area in Nagasaki, unsheltered from A-bomb's blast, was reduced to flattened-out debris.

ATOMIC HAVEN is this residential area of Nagasaki. Hills in background shielded it from atom bomb's blast.

People In Glass Houses Should Not Throw Atoms

By WADE JONES
WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The glass-walled, goldfish-bowl type of modern home construction takes a scolding from atomic age planners.

Because glass can be so deadly when splintered by an explosion, it should be employed "only to the extent essential for the use of the building," say the writers of "The Effects of Atomic Weapons," official Atomic Energy Commission handbook.

Any easily displaced interior fixtures, together with bric-a-brac and other loose facings, are listed along with glass as potentially deadly missiles when shot through the air by a bomb blast.

LIFESAVING HINTS
The book contains a welcome score or more of lifesaving hints for home builders and buyers.

Before listing some of these a popular misconception should be cleared up: American homes in general would have about the same resistance to blast as did those in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Highly qualified architects and engineers arrived at this conclusion after extensive surveys and despite the popularly-held belief that Japanese homes are flimsy.

CONCRETE SHELL
Generally speaking, a reinforced concrete shell, well attached to a frame of either steel or reinforced concrete, will give a maximum of protection.

A lightly attached wall of concrete blocks or bricks would provide almost no protection inside the building and would break up into missiles which could be deadly to those both inside and outside.

The distance of your home from the exploding bomb is, of course, a chief consideration in estimating how much damage you will suffer.

In an atomic air burst of the force of those in Japan, homes within a half mile of the blast would be almost completely destroyed.

WALLS DESTROYED
At a distance of 3,500 feet, in Japan, 18-inch brick walls were completely destroyed.

At from 4,300 to 4,700 feet, some steel frame buildings were destroyed, and light concrete buildings collapsed. At 5,000 feet, or just over a mile, there was "severe damage to entire area." Nineteen brick walls were "moderately cracked."

Homes were "severely damaged" at 8,000 feet, with heavy destruction to window frames and doors.

At 9,000 feet, there was heavy plaster damage. At 10,000 feet, or just under two miles, a majority of homes received blast damage. The limit of light damage was five to eight miles.

PROTECTION
One of the most important considerations in choosing the location for your home is the protection it would receive from hills and valleys between it and the explosion centre.

Certain Nagasaki houses built in ravines running generally at right angles to the explosion were essentially undamaged. Homes at similar distances, but in ravines running toward the explosion, were severely damaged.

A striking example of shielding was provided by a hill about 4,000 feet southeast of the centre of the Nagasaki explosion. The buildings of European type, were on the reverse side of a steep hill. There damage was slight, mainly to plaster and windows.

But at the same distance in other direction from the city, where there was no shielding by hills, the destruction was considerably greater.

SCMB DANGER
The most serious bomb danger to persons in a building is from its total collapse. The experts advise analyzing your home to find its weak points and then decide on

INSECTS GET TREATMENT

Q—How may insects be kept off freshly painted surfaces?
A—To keep most insects away, try mixing a few ounces of an oil base insect repellent, such as citronella, with each gallon of paint.

Sawhorse Is Useful

Conveniently stored sawhorse has innumerable uses around the home. Its tubular steel legs are held in place by hinges and a ball-and-socket joint which makes it easy to assemble or disassemble very quickly.

When folded, it stores in a closet corner, on a shelf, or between the open ends of a garage.

In most homes, and especially where there is no basement in which to keep maintenance and painting equipment, this small storage-space requirement should be really appreciated.

Much Care Urged For Sound Plaster

Careful Workmanship Will Produce Satisfactory Job

Good quality plastering requires a proper type of base, careful measuring and mixing of ingredients and expert workmanship.

Metal lath, wood lath or gypsum base sheets are the most widely accepted bases for plastering and should be applied in accordance with the manufacturer's directions.

Plastering should be at least three-coat work over masonry walls, wood lath, gypsum plaster board, fibre board base or metal lath.

QUICKLIME CARE
Plastic quicklime, hydrated lime or calcined gypsum may be used on all interior work but quicklime should not be used in any work where it has been slated for at least seven days.

Hydrated lime should stand not less than twenty-four hours before mixing and using.

Care should be taken to ensure that the base of "brown coat" is made as smooth as possible and all corners properly squared.

The finish coat should be applied as soon as possible and be completely dry or after it has been dampened.

B.C. Senator Will Ask Inquiry Into Gun Thefts

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 26.—(CP)—Senator Tom Reid, B.C., will ask the government to launch an inquiry into the thefts of guns from the military reserve depot at Vancouver.

Reid said the thefts were not being taken seriously enough and that the federal government should "get down in a search for the facts."

The senator announced his plan to demand an intensive investigation into the last night in a speech he made in the House of Commons.

He said he had information that the stolen guns had been found in the hands of a man from Eastern Canada, a member of the New Westminster Reserve Regiment and a fifth from an army unit at Vancouver.

Formosa Invasion Will Be Hard Task

U.S. Naval Commander Warns Chinese Communists

By Ernest Hoherecht
Exclusive to Bulletin

TOKYO, Aug. 26.—(CP)—The Chinese Communists had better think twice before they try to invade Formosa, the commander of U.S. naval forces in the Far East warned today.

Vice Admiral Charles T. Joy said the Reds will find the U.S. navy "alert and ready for them" if they attempt to cross the 80-mile strait of water that separates the Nationalist stronghold from the Chinese mainland.

The admiral told the United Press in an exclusive interview that he can give "any kind of intelligence reports you want," some of which indicate the Communists are preparing to attack.

"If I were a Communist, I certainly would think twice before attempting what they have been threatening to do," Adm. Joy said.

The German thought twice before they tried to invade Russia and they had more "in" power than the Chinese Communists possess and a far shorter distance to go," he added.

ONLY MORE MEN
The only thing the Chinese Reds possess in greater number than the U.S. navy is men.

Joy's command includes the 7th fleet which President Truman sent to the defense of Formosa against invasion by the Reds.

In addition to guarding the Straits of Formosa, the 7th fleet has effectively blockaded North Korean shipping.

Joy said the Korean invaders may be getting "small amounts" of support from the mainland.

Sugar Plum Tree Party Centrepiece

By Bob Triffy

Party time for little people calls for a brand-new plastic sugar-plum tree centrepiece.

It's a plastic pretty with branches gracefully shaped to hold soft candies in a galaxy of colors.

It could be used for canapés at a buffet supper or cocktail party with equal success.

One of its joys is the price... at 98c.

I was out being party guesstimate when I first spotted the ingenious little fairy-tale tree used to entertain.

It could be utilized at merry old Yuletide for table decorations, too.

Finger-tip towels in bright shades have prompted much enthusiasm from laundry-lagger me.

Selling for 29c each, these gay-colored terry towel strips about one foot wide and one yard long, are hand-dies for a "quickie-wash-up".

Stripper blue, wild rose, coral, amber, scarlet, lavender and grey shades are available.

But a few short days ago a sweet-voiced reader called me to ask about plastic canasta cloths. I mentioned them a short while ago... but briefly.

Seems the canasta cloths have clear, concise playing directions for the absorbing card game.

Now for the likes of you in me who aren't too adept at card rules... it's a gem indeed.

And for a $1.98 price listing it's a fair-ago buy. Various colors are available in the plastic affairs.

Table-lamps are growing ever-livelier. And I mean my words to sound enthusiastic.

Some are elegant in the fashion of period furniture with pleated, striped shades. Some are clean-cut modern designs. Some are built to house clinging ivory or phillidennum. All are priced from $5 to $50.

Velvet and cousin corduroy are hitting high ground on the popularity poll this promise-of-autumn season.

I spotted a pretty velvet skirt of warm, earthy brown selling for a price of $14.95.

Matched with a palest pink skirt or wool jersey...

...it was a glowing costume picture of casual fall fashions.

Corduroy frocks, skirts, vests, jackets, hats, slacks, coats... and even blouses are chalked up on the "must" list for fall of '50.

Sly-with-a-dollar me am going to invest in a few yards of drapery corduroy in various suitable shades and whomp me up a pretty or three for fashion's sake.

WHY GROW OLD

Busy Mothers Lose Weight And Gain Self Respect

By Josephine Lowman

Honestly, I get such a kick out of these letters which come to me from women who stuck to Marathon and were successful.

Listen to this:

"I just have to tell you the good news! In February I went to you for your Eight-Week Self-improvement Marathon. It was such a little piece of paper and brought me such wonderful results! I sent for it half out of curiosity but when I came, I decided to try it. I went to my doctor for a check-up and he told me I was in good condition and he liked my results."

February 11th - April 28th: Weight, 135 pounds; 130 pounds; 125 pounds; 120 pounds; 115 pounds; 110 pounds; 105 pounds; 100 pounds; 95 pounds; 90 pounds; 85 pounds; 80 pounds; 75 pounds; 70 pounds; 65 pounds; 60 pounds; 55 pounds; 50 pounds; 45 pounds; 40 pounds; 35 pounds; 30 pounds; 25 pounds; 20 pounds; 15 pounds; 10 pounds; 5 pounds; 0 pounds.

"To tell you the truth I couldn't believe it. I never felt weak at any time and it was so trouble at all. In fact, it was lots of fun to see what I could do."

"I think it is good for the mind."

to make it better. I want a 30-inch waist and I will have it before long!"

Overweight ruins your future, shortens your life expectancy and makes you tired.

It also makes you bored with yourself and with life. These Marathon winners gave themselves eight weeks, or a little more, to see how much they could improve.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Needless Fears Can Rule And Ruin Your Daily Life

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Fear is a poor daily companion. Yet this mother is eaten by fear just because of her children's chance meeting with a victim of tuberculosis.

"I have grown so germ-conscious that I think I am going 'raw.' This has happened ever since an old friend of ours dropped in to visit us. We asked him why he wasn't working and his reply was that he had developed tuberculosis and was being treated for it."

MUCH AFRAID

"I am very much afraid of TB, and I am afraid he has left germs on doorknobs, chair-arms, the telephone and heaven knows what else."

"I am afraid to put my 7½-month-old baby on the carpet—and the carpets! I feel I should disinfect everything and I have washed every possible thing and have let in fresh air and sunshine, but I can't sterilize everything."

You have been a new about nothing. The coughing TB patient is a menace to those in whose presence he coughs, and he should not be allowed to hold the children. Also, all utensils he used in eating should be washed and sterilized with boiling water.

POWERFUL SUNLIGHT

But any germs which might have been on hands would have died quickly on exposure to the air. Sunlight is a wonderful agent for destroying germs. I feel sure, too, that since he is being treated for tuberculosis that he has been taught to take care for himself so that he would not be a menace to those with whom he came in contact.

Our leaflet No. 12, "First Aid in Emergencies," for the child who is physically injured, may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Tobe on Fashion—

Gathering Of The Clans In The College Shops

Never has there been such a gathering of the clan tans as you'll find in the college shops this year. For the latest fashions that was started by men is making a clean sweep of the young casual fashions designed for the college girls and their career sisters.

In many cases you can pick whatever clan tans you like best and carry it through from soup to nuts—be hats to shoes if we must be factual. Plaid mitts, plaid coats, plaid skirts, plaid dresses—all in smart western-style plaid designs, woven in the identical tartans: matching plaid accessories—hats, scarves, commensurate gloves, bags—yes, even shoes. This year!

You can be sober or gay in color too—from the dark green and navy—Black Watch tartan, to the vivid red Royal Stuart.

Healthy Harvest Heralded If Lack of Labor Lessens

By the Canadian Press

Barring a labor shortage on the prairies, Canada can expect a good harvest.

If the rail strike continues, harvest laborers may be scarce in the west but even this gap might be filled by men made idle by the strike.

War Services Council Ends Functions

The War Services Council of Northern Alberta, active since the beginning of World War II as director of voluntary war services, has brought its functions to a close on Friday, when it handed over all its assets to the Veterans' and War Services Council, a new body created by the Government House.

These assets included $100,000 in cash and a new Dodge sedan for the use of hospitalized veterans.

SET UP IN WAR

The War Services Council was established in the early years of the war under the chairmanship of T. H. Thompson, who was succeeded by Harold L. Weir, who, in turn, was succeeded by Mr. Weir.

The duties of the council were extended by the Department of National War Services until, at the close of hostilities, it continued its voluntary war work, such as entertainment of troops, salvage, and other activities of a similar nature.

The Council constituted itself on April 5, 1946, to an executive committee with full powers to administer the funds in the interests of hospitalized veterans.

The executive committee consisted of Mr. Weir, as chairman, M. C. McCannell, C.A., G. H. Linney, W. J. A. Munn, K.C., and Mrs. F. M. Andrews.

On the resignation of Mr. Linney in 1948, the Very Reverend A. J. Trendell was appointed to the committee in his place.

Romeo, Juliet Greek Style Feeds Feud

ATHENS, Greece, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A 20th century reality parallel to Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet threatened today to flame into war in the mountains of Crete.

What the Montagues were to the Capulets as the Kephalloniots have been to the Petrakogiorgis on Crete these last 40 years, and so—When Constantine Kephalloniots kidnapped his sweetheart, 18-year-old Stasoulia Petrakogiorgis, from the public square in the Cretan capital of Heraklion four days ago, families, friends, and authorities feared the worst.

Constantine is supposed to have vowed to kill himself and the girl rather than be separated by the family feud.

CHOOSING SIDES

The hot-eyed young men of Crete were said to be choosing sides in the vendetta involving the girl's father, a Liberal member in the Greek parliament, and the boy's brother, a royalist MP.

So tense is the situation that the governor-general, the Metropolitan of the Greek Orthodox church, and the chiefs of the gendarmerie have hurried to prevent an explosion.

Meanwhile, the young lovers remain hidden in the mountain fastness, south of Heraklion.

CARSHALTON, Surrey, Eng.—(CP)—Local council couldn't dispose of a 12-inch guillotine, so they sold it back to the makers at half cost.
